Visitors spend a full day here

There is a village on the island with different places to visit.

There is a visitor reception. The people here will help you and answer any questions you might have.

Marisco Tavern

There is a pub called the Marisco Tavern, where you can buy food and drinks.

There is also a shop, called the General Stores.

General Stores

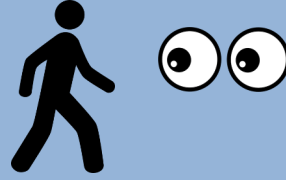

The only toilets on the island are in the village.

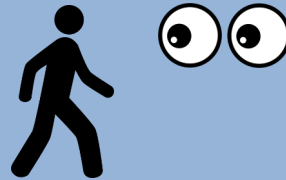

While you are here you can.....

1. visit the Old Lighthouse.

2. visit the Castle.

3. look for the different animals.

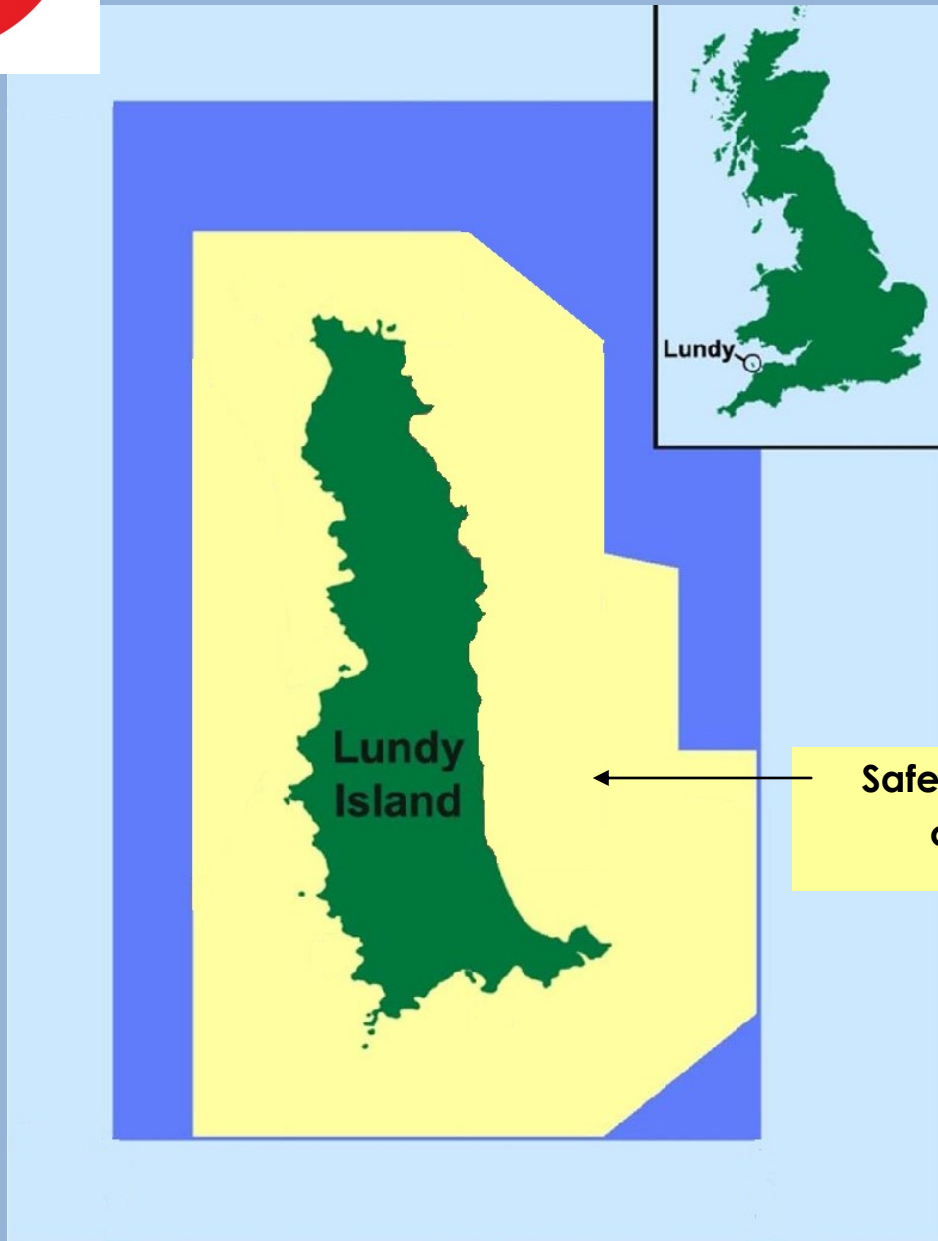

This booklet is about:

- The Marine Conservation Zone
- The old buildings
- The wildlife

No fishing is allowed in the sea around Lundy Island.

The sea creatures are safe. This means that the sea around the island has lots of interesting sea creatures.

It is called a Marine Conservation Zone.

Area

In the Marine Conservation Zone the lobsters get to grow really big!

The seals have lots of food to eat and feel safe in the Marine Conservation Zone.

People go swimming in the Marine Conservation Zone to see the variety of sea creatures.

Can you see any seals in the marine conservation zone?

At the top of the island you will find the Old Lighthouse.

It isn't used anymore and is very old.

It was built in 1819, over 200 years ago.

On the top was a bright light.

The light could be seen by ships out to sea.

The lighthouse is 29 meters high.
That's the same as 4 double-decker buses on top of each other!

When the Old Lighthouse closed, two new lighthouses were built on the island.

Can you see the Old Lighthouse?

There is a castle on Lundy Island, called Marisco Castle.

King Henry III had the castle built in 1247.

Over the years many changes have been made to the castle.

Now, people can stay in the cottages for a holiday.

Can you find the cottages inside the castle?

There are lots of different types of wildlife on the island.

Lundy has a herd of wild ponies.

Lundy ponies were born on the island, that is why they are called Lundy ponies.

Why are they called Lundy ponies?

There are Highland Steers on the island.

They were brought to the island to eat the grass.

There are a lot of sheep on the island. They eat the grass and live in the fields.

There are also lots and lots of rabbits.

Rabbits are nocturnal, which means they come out at night.

What animals have you seen during your trip?

There are over 140 different kinds of birds on Lundy.

People from all around the world come to see the birds.

Lundy is famous for its Puffins.

They are birds with a bright coloured beak.

A baby Puffin is called a Puffling.

Did you see a Puffin?

Now you know that

1. The sea around Lundy is a Marine Conservation Zone.
2. The Old Lighthouse is no longer in use.
3. The castle on the island was built for King Henry III.
4. There are lots of different types of wildlife on Lundy.

We hope you enjoyed your day.
What did you enjoy the most?

Thank you for visiting
Lundy Island.
